

Transports

Rome as has two main international airports:

- Leonardo da Vinci/Fiumicino International Airport (Rome Fiumicino) - Rome's main airport is modern, large, rather efficient, and well connected to the center of the city by public transportation.
- Ciampino International Airport (Rome Ciampino, IATA airport) - Located to the southeast of the capital. This small airport is closer to the city center than Fiumicino but has no direct train connection.

Public Transport

 Bus ATAC: 892 (to metro Cornelia)

Metro

The 2 lines are the Linea A, or red line and the Linea B, or blue line and you can change from one line to the other at the main train station, Termini. Metro operates from 5:30 until 23:30 (1:30 on Friday and Saturday nights) every 3-4 minutes during rush hours, every 5-6 during the day and every 8-10 minutes early morning and late evening.
